Problem!

- Debtors mean restricted cash flow
- Debt recovery normally costs money, which you might not get back.
- But you don't want to write off the debt!

Solution:

- Give it to our Commercial Litigation Team, vastly experienced in law, enforcement, negotiations and strategy.
- Pay nothing up front except for Court fees.
- Fixed fee, paid out of money recovered.
- If costs recovered, part may be used to reduce or extinguish the fixed fee.
- Fixed fee includes protection against opponent's costs.

Benefits:

- Recover debts and maximise cash flow.
- No recovery, no fee.
- Know precisely how much recovery will cost from day 1.
- Fee taken out of the debt recovered.
- Costs recovered may be used towards fixed fee.
- No concerns about the risk of cost orders against you.
- Tap into a leading Commercial Litigation Team pro-active in their recovery techniques. No conveyor belt claims handling, simply writing letters and making threats but getting nowhere.

That is it! No catches, hidden charges or penalties. You decide whether to use some of the money owed to make a recovery. If so, we will do the rest. Interested? Call a member of our Commercial Litigation team or email debt@howell-jones.com

Important Note:

All potential debt instructions are subject to a risk assessment that enables us to determine the prospects of making a successful recovery. We will only offer to act under the Scheme where the risk assessment reveals that reasonable prospects exist. If the debt does not satisfy this criteria, we will discuss the commercial viability of pursuing the debt and other ways we may be able to assist.
